

1. Does the equipment come fully assembled inside the transfer container?

Yes ,The equipment is all installed in 40 foot high container, container is also provided by us

2. Doesn't a specialist need to perform the installation and officially commission it?

We will install and debug before delivery, and send you the video,After the epidemic, we will also provide an on-site installation guide. You are responsible for the travel expenses of the engineer

3. Training should be given on the handling and operation of the equipment. Do you have an Operations Manual?

Yes, we have.and before delivery we also do the Operations video for you .

4. Is there a Maintenance Manual where the frequency of the maintenance and the protocols to be followed are known?

Yes also have it , and please check other plan send for you .

5.Does the team have the Quality Certifications that are required in the market? Which do you have?

we have ISO Certifications and ce Certifications

