

LETTER OF DECLARATION

Date Apr.8th, 2021

To whom it may concern,

We, Beijing Lepu Medical Technology Co., Ltd, hereby confirm that we have agreed Emotive Systems GmbH to repackage antigen rapid test products supplied by us into other packaging units. The repacking should comply with local regulations and applicable guidelines from but not limit to market surveillance authority and BfArM in Germany.

Emotive Systems GmbH shall be responsible for the quality control of subcontracted products and disputes and complaints caused by repacking. The agreement on repacking takes effect only under the condition obeying local laws and regulations in Germany. In case of violations, the manufacturer reserves the right to revoke the agreement on repacking.

This Authorization is explicitly also valid for products with earlier manufacturing dates, beginning with FEB 16th, 2021, but only for products marked with Emotive Systems GmbH as importing company.
